Texture of City
by Ayhan Guneri

Showroom, Retail: In the design of the third showroom of jump showroom complex, the texture of the city providing inspiration for the shoe styles which they use in the daily and business life is handled as a theme. In the inkjet visual printing surrounding the location, grey-toned graphic designs are prepared other than the other showrooms, thereby highlighting the monotony of the city life. The concrete texture of the city shows itself on the flooring and walls.
